Pastor Andrew's Message

Psalm 23 is perhaps the most well-known Psalm of them all, written by King David, who was a shepherd boy in his youth. My title for today is 'The Shepherd is on the Throne' since this Psalm uses the well-known image of shepherd but also the image of a King. We will see that the divine shepherd supplies every need (v1), gives rest to the weary (v2), prepares the soul for heavenly service (v3), and is with us in the darkest times (v4). In the final two verses the image changes to Kingship and we see that a banquet is provided in the middle of conflict (v5) and it will satisfy all the needs of a lifetime and beyond (v6). Spurgeon comments 'no man has a right to consider himself the Lord's sheep unless his nature is renewed, for the scriptural description of an unconverted men does not picture them as sheep but as wolves or goats...it is well to know, as David certainly did, that we belong to the Lord.'

Happy birthday wishes to anyone celebrating their birthday this week. God bless you. Happy birthday! 🎂 🎈 🎉 🎊

For men:

Tear Fund wrote: Thank you for your gift of £125. Your generosity and prayers are helping to transform the lives of people like Olastique. Olastique lives in Soubré in Côte d'Ivoire. She's a member of a local church, where she took part in Tearfund's Transforming Communities training, and she tells us her story of how her situation has been transformed!

Made from fermented cassava flour, attiéké (pronounced atchekay) has a couscous-type texture and is most often eaten with grilled fish or meat and a spicy pepper sauce. It's an affordable dish, and more importantly for Olastique, it's a dish that's allowing her to afford the things she needs.

'I was working in the attiéké trade. However, I wasn't earning enough to meet my own needs or those of my family. After the Integral Mission training, one of the things that I understood really clearly was that perseverance and a clear vision are essential for success.

Prayer Information

CEP prayer diary for January is available via email. Please ask Viv if you would like to receive it and pray for their work in Redbridge schools.

CEF Prayer diary: a few copies are available on the table in the foyer. Please take one and pray for Steve and Rachel's work locally.

If you're not already part of a Home Group, why not join one.
One group meets on Zoom and one at the church.

Home Groups

We meet in small groups to study God's Word and discuss its application for daily life. They take place in people's homes on the following days.

- Wednesday 8pm (There are 3 separate groups)
- Friday 8pm

For more information about joining a group, please contact one of the deacons or email info@broadmeadbaptistchurch.org.uk.

The January issue of the Good News newspaper is now available on the table in the entrance hall. If you turn to the centre page you will read of a teenager who had overdosed on drugs 24 times by the age of 18 and has turned his life around with the power of Jesus and the help of a Christian rehabilitation centre. What a great message to pass on to someone you know, who has not yet come to Jesus. That nothing is impossible with God.

Church Leaders:

Monday 12th January Leadership Prayer Meeting at 8p.m. in the crèche.

Tuesday 13th January Deacons/ Trustee Meeting at 8p.m. in the crèche. If you have any matters you want discussed please inform Viv via email.
